DGTR records producer name change in industrial laser machines duty table, China

Case No. ADD-OI-07/2022 · Amendment · January 28, 2026

The Directorate General of Trade Remedies has issued an amendment notification dated January 28, 2026 (F. No. 7/24/2025-DGTR) in the anti-dumping case on Industrial Laser Machines used for cutting, marking or welding originating in or exported from China. The Authority issued final findings in Case No. ADD-OI-07/2022 on September 27, 2023, and the Central Government imposed the recommended duty by Customs Notification No. 15/2023-Customs (ADD) dated December 22, 2023.

In the original investigation, Bystronic (Shenzhen) Laser Technology Co., Ltd., Bystronic (Tianjin) Laser Ltd. and Bystronic Laser AG took part as the Bystronic Group, and a cooperating rate of duty was set for the group. DNE LASER (Guangdong) Co., Ltd. applied under Trade Notice No. 12/2018 to have its new name recorded, stating that the change took effect from August 11, 2025 and involved no change in ownership, shareholding, management, operations, legal identity, USCC or registered address.

The Authority examined the business licenses before and after the change, the financial statements for 2022 to 2024, the shareholder information and the revised articles of association. It found that the entity's shareholders, capital, ownership, management, legal status and structure are unchanged, and that the application was filed on time. No interested party objected.

The Authority amends the final findings so that Sl. No. 5 of the duty table names "DNE LASER (Guangdong) Co., Ltd." as the producer, and recommends the same change in Notification No. 15/2023-Customs (ADD). An appeal against the notification lies before the Customs, Excise and Service Tax Appellate Tribunal (CESTAT).

Product	Industrial Laser Machines used for cutting, marking or welding
Countries	China
Applicant	DNE LASER (Guangdong) Co., Ltd., previously known as Bystronic (Shenzhen) Laser Technology Co., Ltd. (applicant for change of name)
Findings	• The name change took effect from August 11, 2025 and was announced on August 18, 2025; the application filed on the SETU portal on November 7, 2025 was within the 90 days required by Trade Notice No. 12/2018. • The Authority found that the shareholders, share capital, ownership, management, legal status and structure of the entity are the same before and after the name change. • The Unified Social Credit Code (USCC) and the address in the business licenses issued before and after the name change are identical. • No comments or objections were received from the domestic industry or any other interested party within the 10 days allowed, and the Authority held that no oral hearing was required. • The Authority held that the application falls within Trade Notice No. 12/2018 and that the name in the duty table may be changed through the simplified procedure it stipulates.
Recommendation	The Authority amends Final Findings Notification No. 06/07/2022-DGTR dated September 27, 2023 so that the producer at Sl. No. 5 of the duty table reads "DNE LASER (Guangdong) Co., Ltd." in place of "Bystronic (Shenzhen) Laser Technology Co., Ltd.", and recommends the same change in Notification No. 15/2023-Customs (ADD) dated December 22, 2023.
