The proceeding follows Final Order No. 50782/2026 of the Customs, Excise and Service Tax Appellate Tribunal (CESTAT), dated April 27, 2026, in the matter of GKB Ophthalmics Limited V/s Designated Authority & Ors. The Tribunal set aside the Final Findings dated September 29, 2022 to the extent that nil anti-dumping duty was recommended or imposed on five participating exporters: Conant Optics (Jiangsu) Co., Ltd., Shanghai Conant Optics Co., Ltd., Zhejiang Weixing Optical Co., Ltd., Carl Zeiss Vision (China) Limited, and Daejeon Daemyung Optical (Hangzhou) Co., Ltd.

The Tribunal sent the matter back to the Designated Authority for a fresh determination of the Non-Injurious Price (NIP), after giving GKB Ophthalmics Limited, the domestic industry and appellant, a reasonable opportunity to respond on how the NIP was determined. The Authority states that it will re-examine the relevant information on record, allow all interested parties to make submissions under the Anti-Dumping Rules, and determine the NIP afresh in accordance with law.

Interested parties are to register on the SETU portal and file all submissions under case ID AD/AA/002/2026 within fifteen days from the date the notification is published on the SETU platform. Narrative submissions are to be in searchable PDF or MS-Word format and data files in MS-Excel.
